

A photograph of a group of people in a social setting, overlaid with a yellow filter. The image is slightly blurred, focusing on the text in the foreground. The text "oneANOTHER" is centered horizontally and vertically. The word "one" is in a lowercase, rounded font, while "ANOTHER" is in a bold, uppercase, sans-serif font. The letters are white with a yellow shadow effect.

oneANOTHER

The Biblical concept of honor.

A group of people, likely a church congregation, is shown in a dimly lit setting. The image is heavily filtered with a yellowish-gold color. The people are mostly seen from the chest up, looking towards the right side of the frame. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

The Bible talks about the concept and principle of honor over 300 times.

⁹ Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰ Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. ¹¹ Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord.

ROMANS 12:9-11 NIV

A group of people, including a woman in a white sweater and a man in a dark jacket, are shown in a warm, yellow-toned setting. The text is overlaid on the image.

Honor

definition: to give weight to, to esteem, to value.

It is sometimes easy to honor people's accomplishments and forget to honor the value and worth that is inside us because we are made in God's image.

A group of people, likely a church congregation, is shown in a warm, yellow-tinted setting. The image is slightly blurred, focusing on the text overlay. The text is white with a drop shadow, making it stand out against the background. The word 'love' is underlined.

Biblical Honor is:
A demonstration of love.

A group of people, including a woman in the foreground with her back to the camera, are shown in a warm, golden-yellow setting. The text is overlaid on the image.

When we Biblically honor someone else we assign them value regardless of what they can do for you.

A group of people embracing, overlaid with a yellow filter. The image shows several individuals in a close embrace, with their faces partially visible. The overall tone is warm and positive, contrasting with the text about shame.

The opposite of shame.

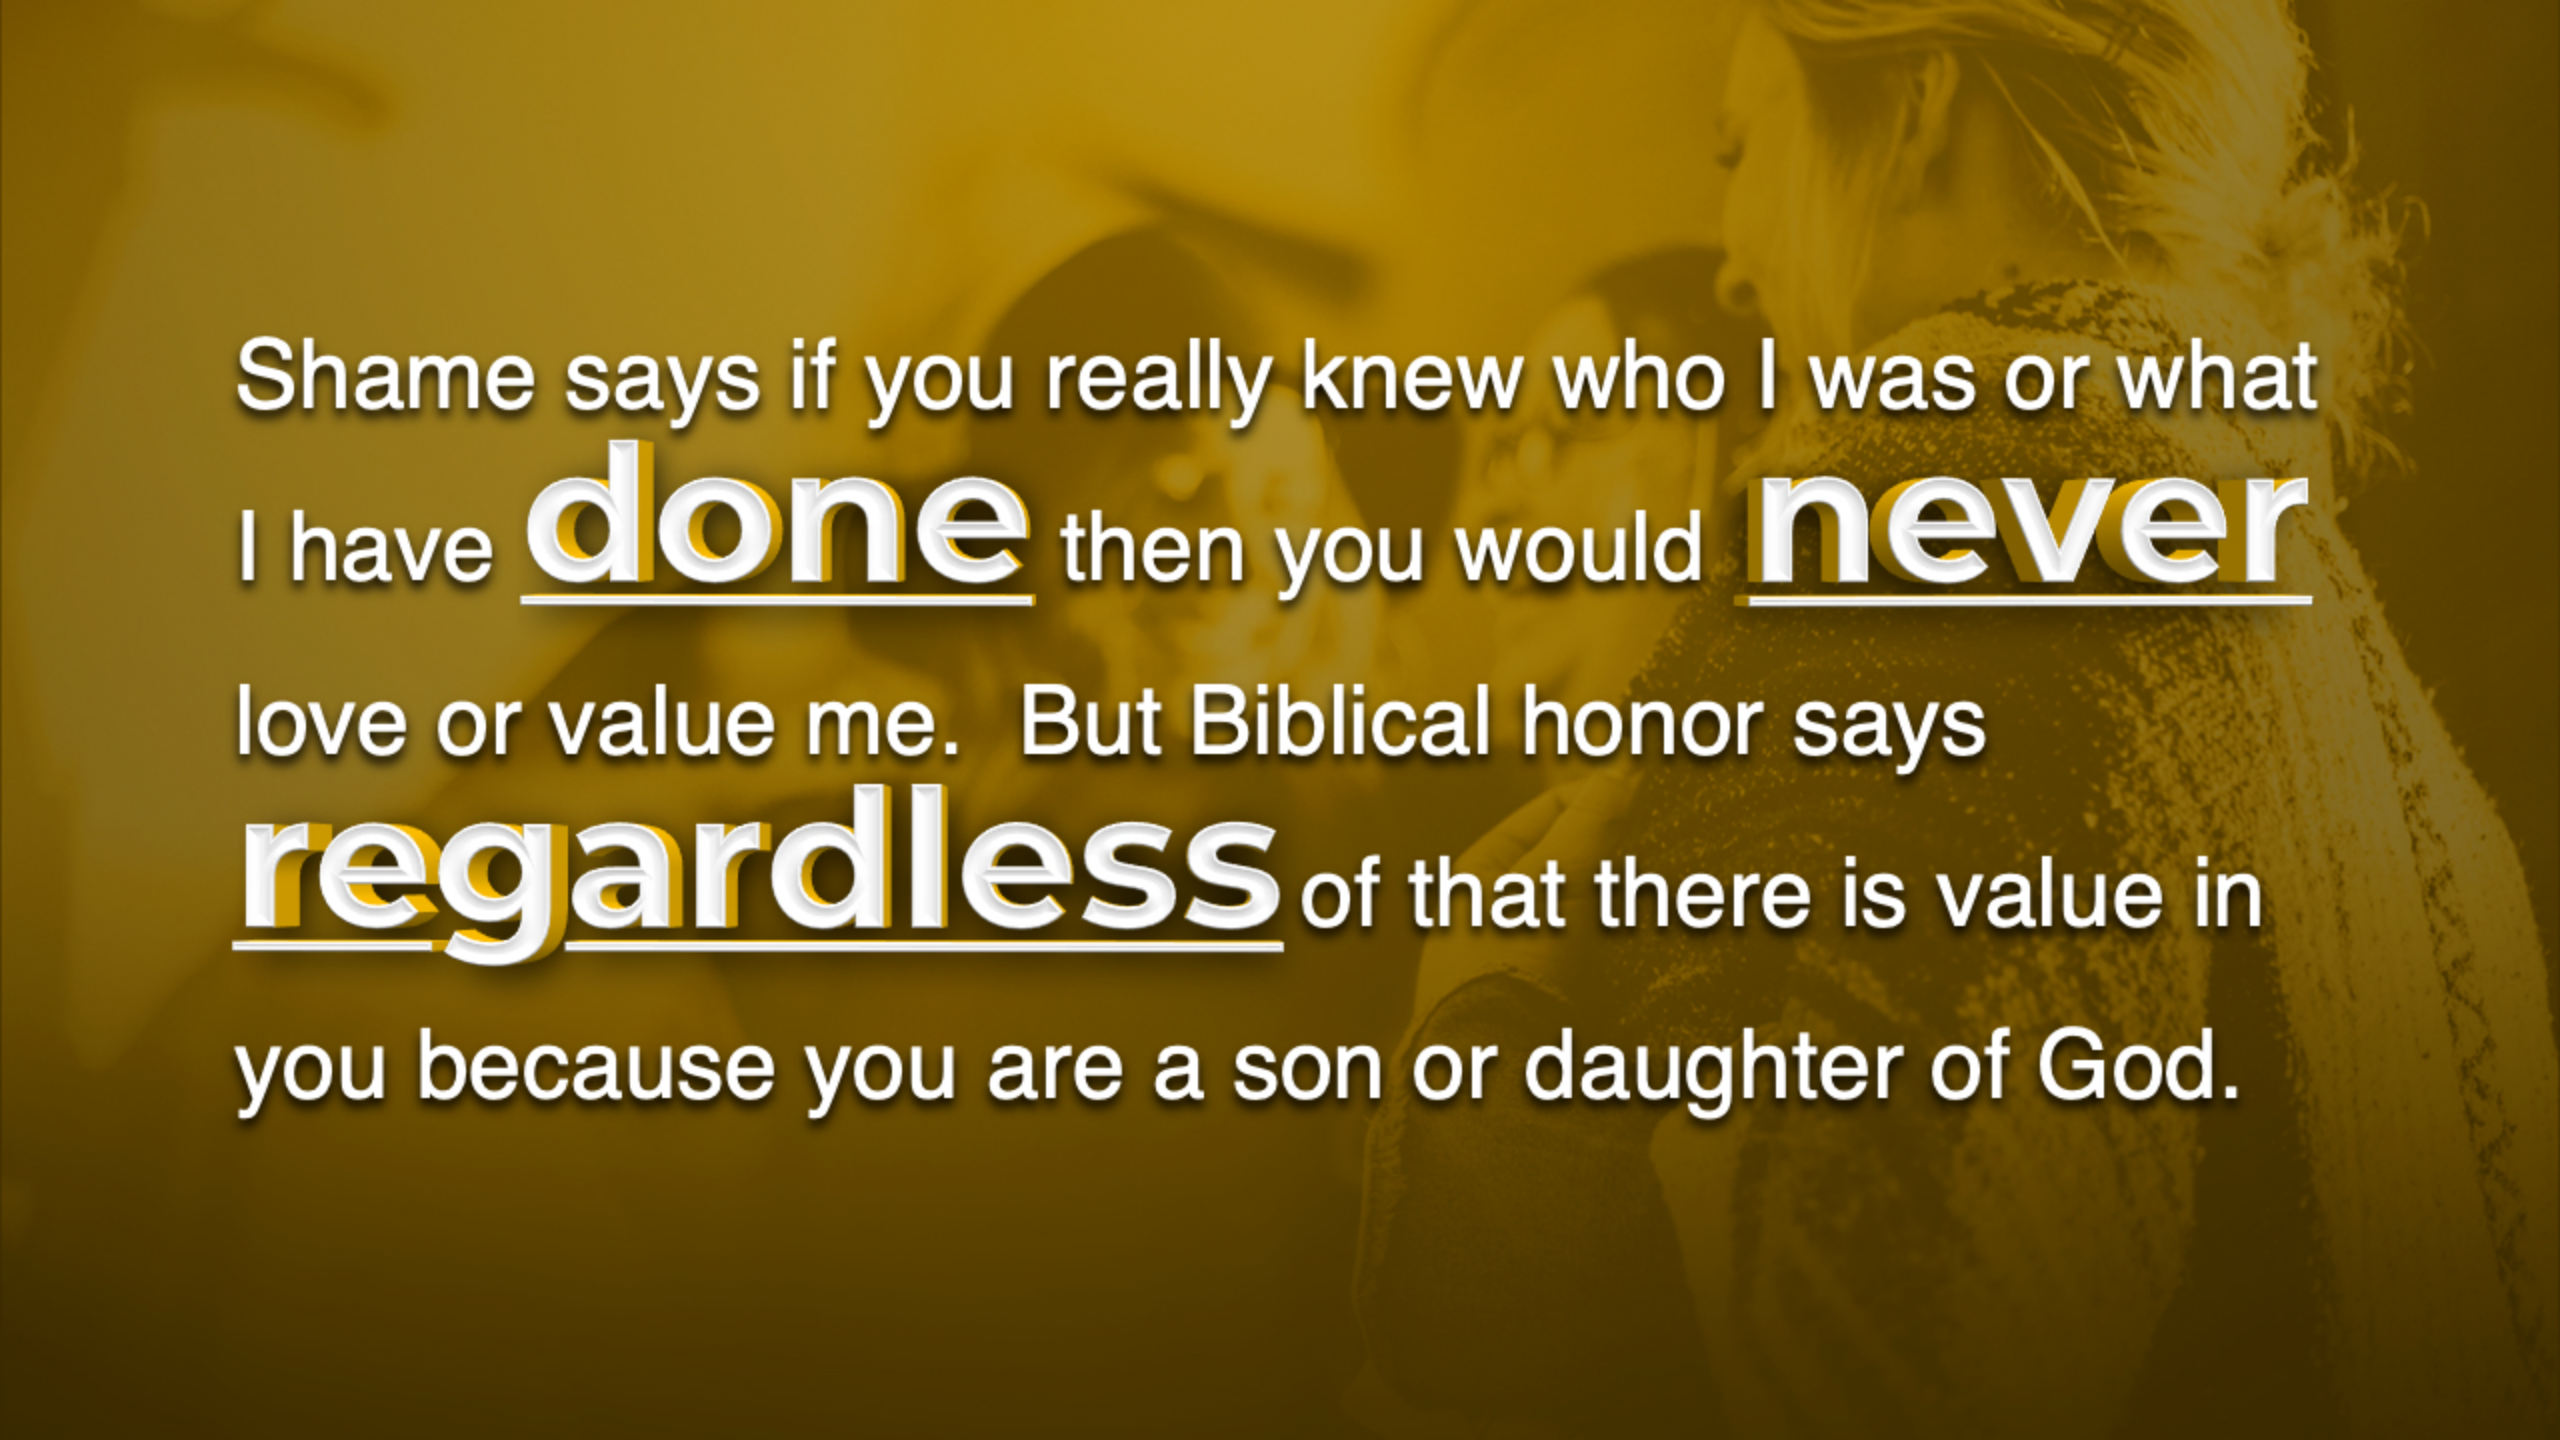

The opposite of shame.

Dishonor

definition: to treat as common or ordinary, to shame.

Shame says if you really knew who I was or what I have done then you would never love or value me. But Biblical honor says regardless of that there is value in you because you are a son or daughter of God.

A group of people in a meeting, overlaid with a yellow filter. The text "Closely connected to our words" is centered on the image.

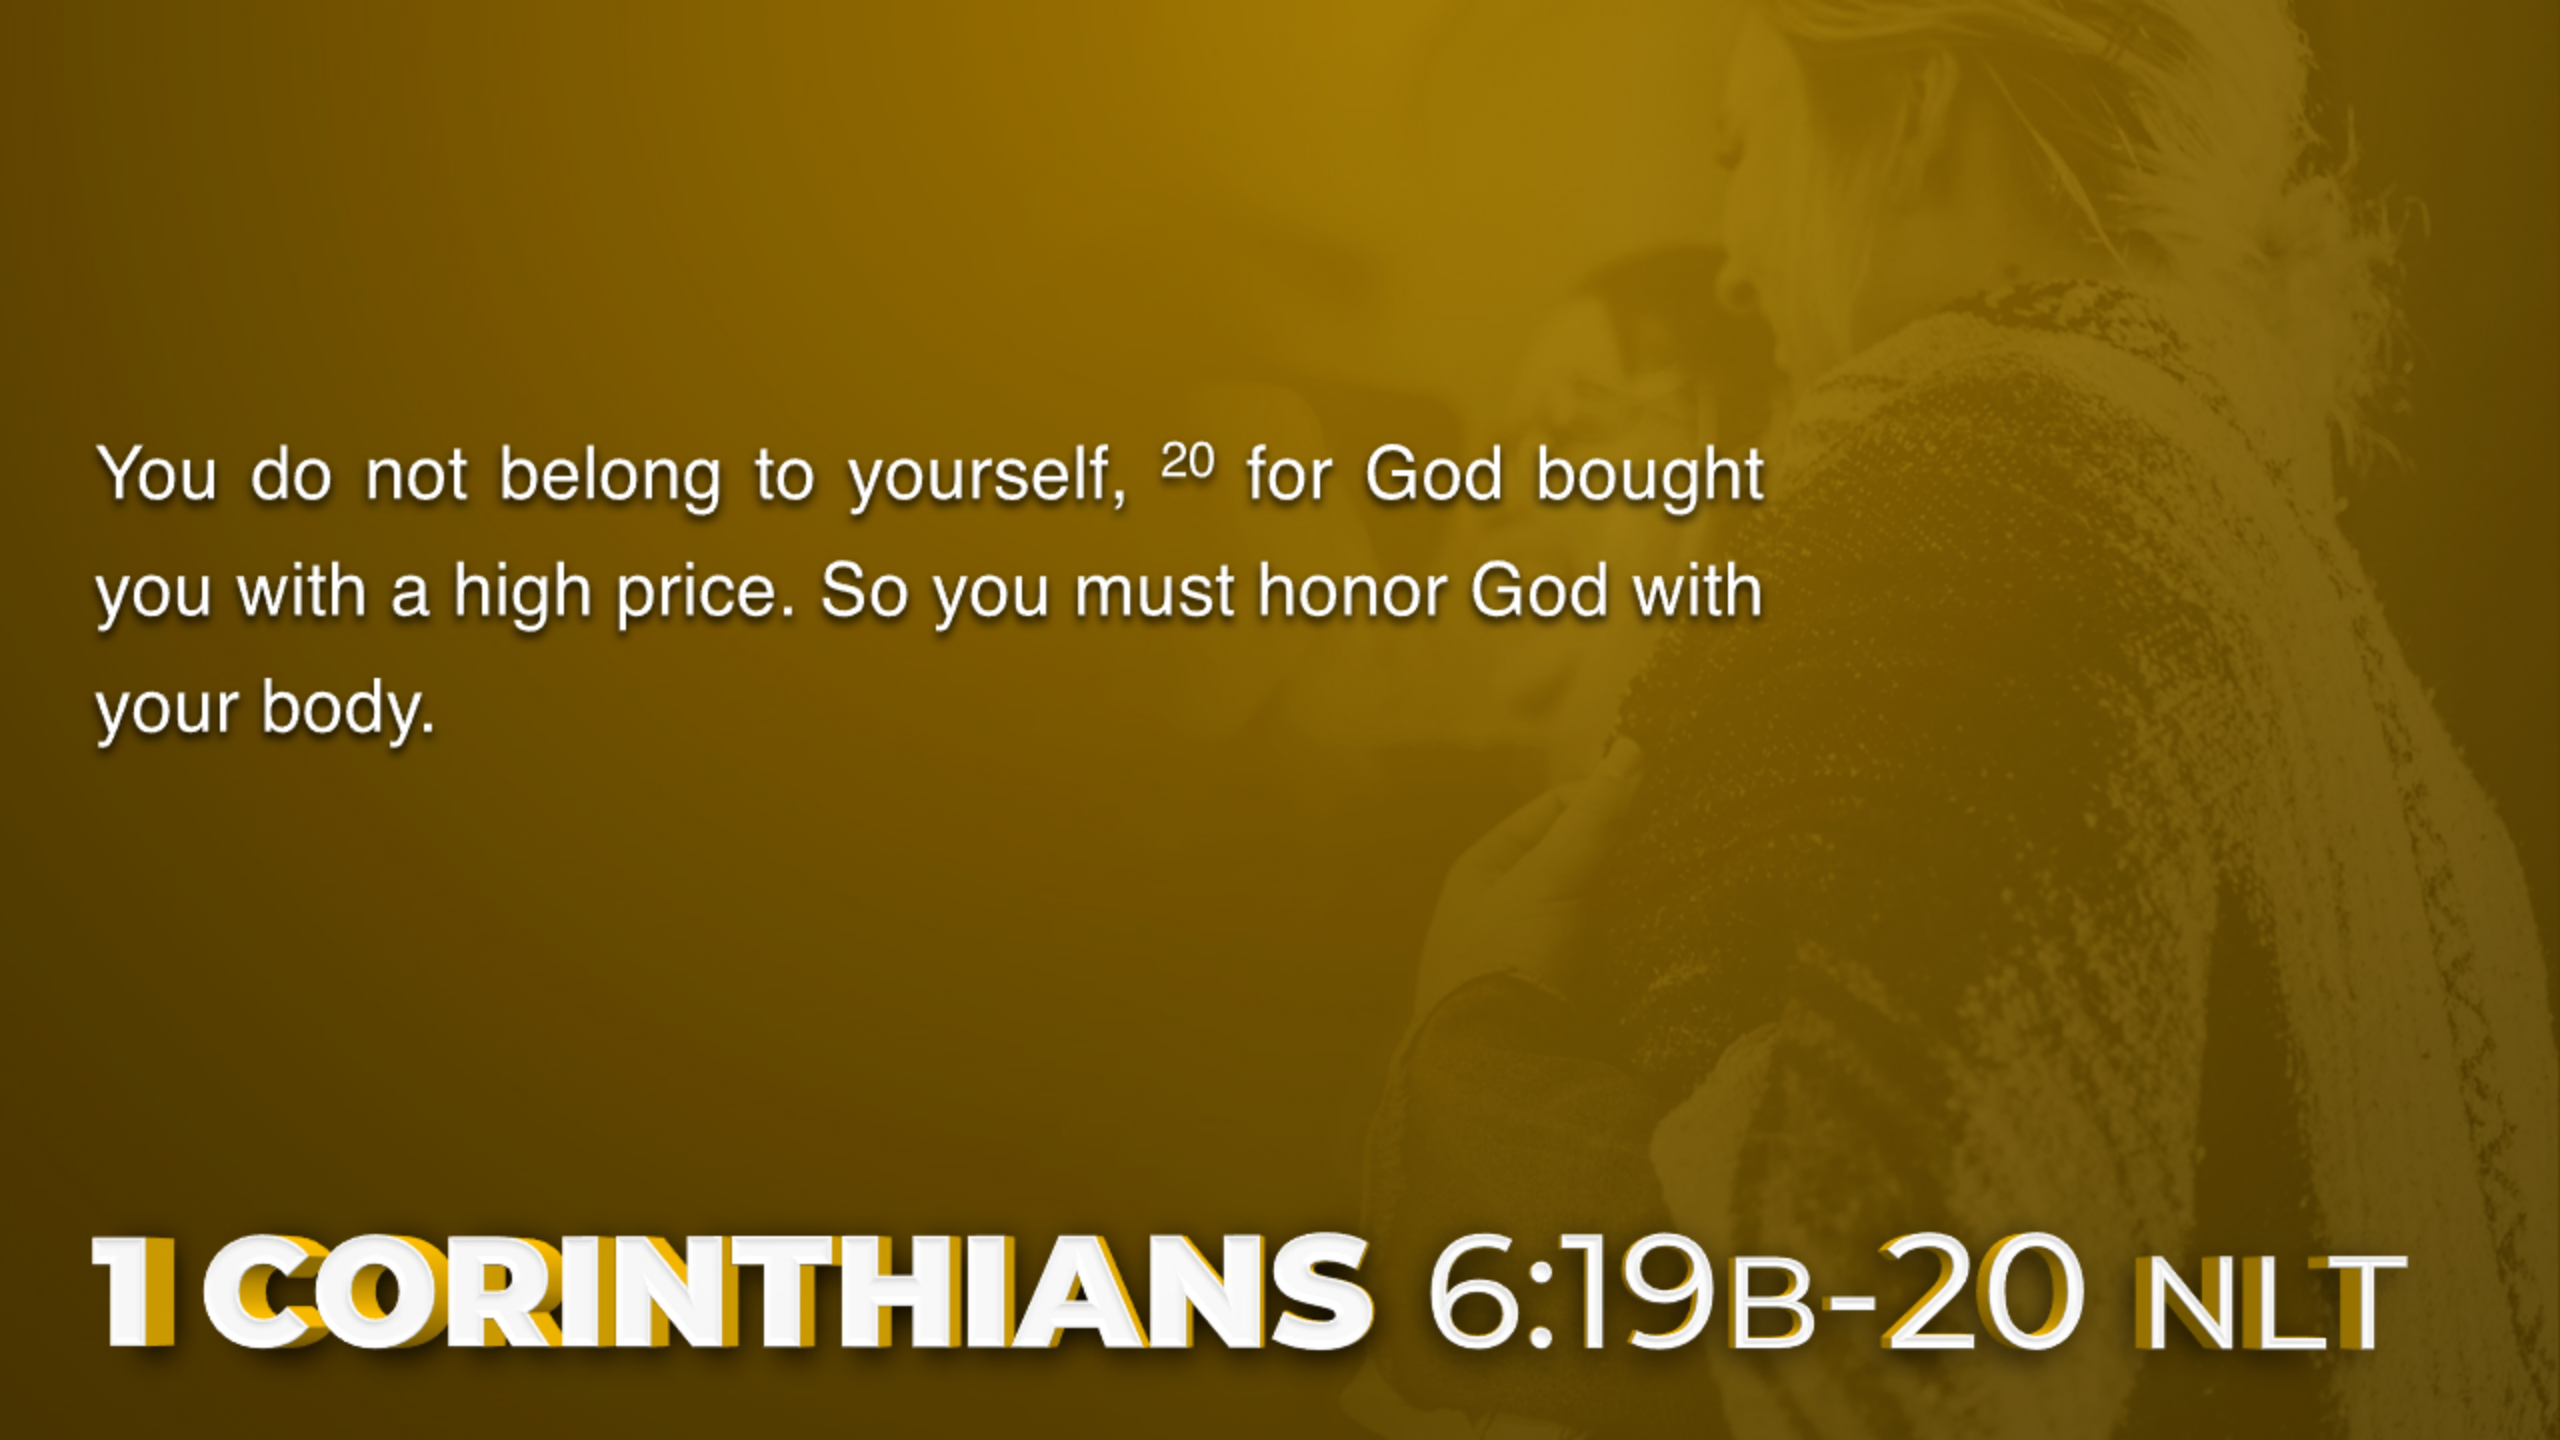

Closely connected to our words

²⁹ Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.

EPHESIANS 4:29 NIV

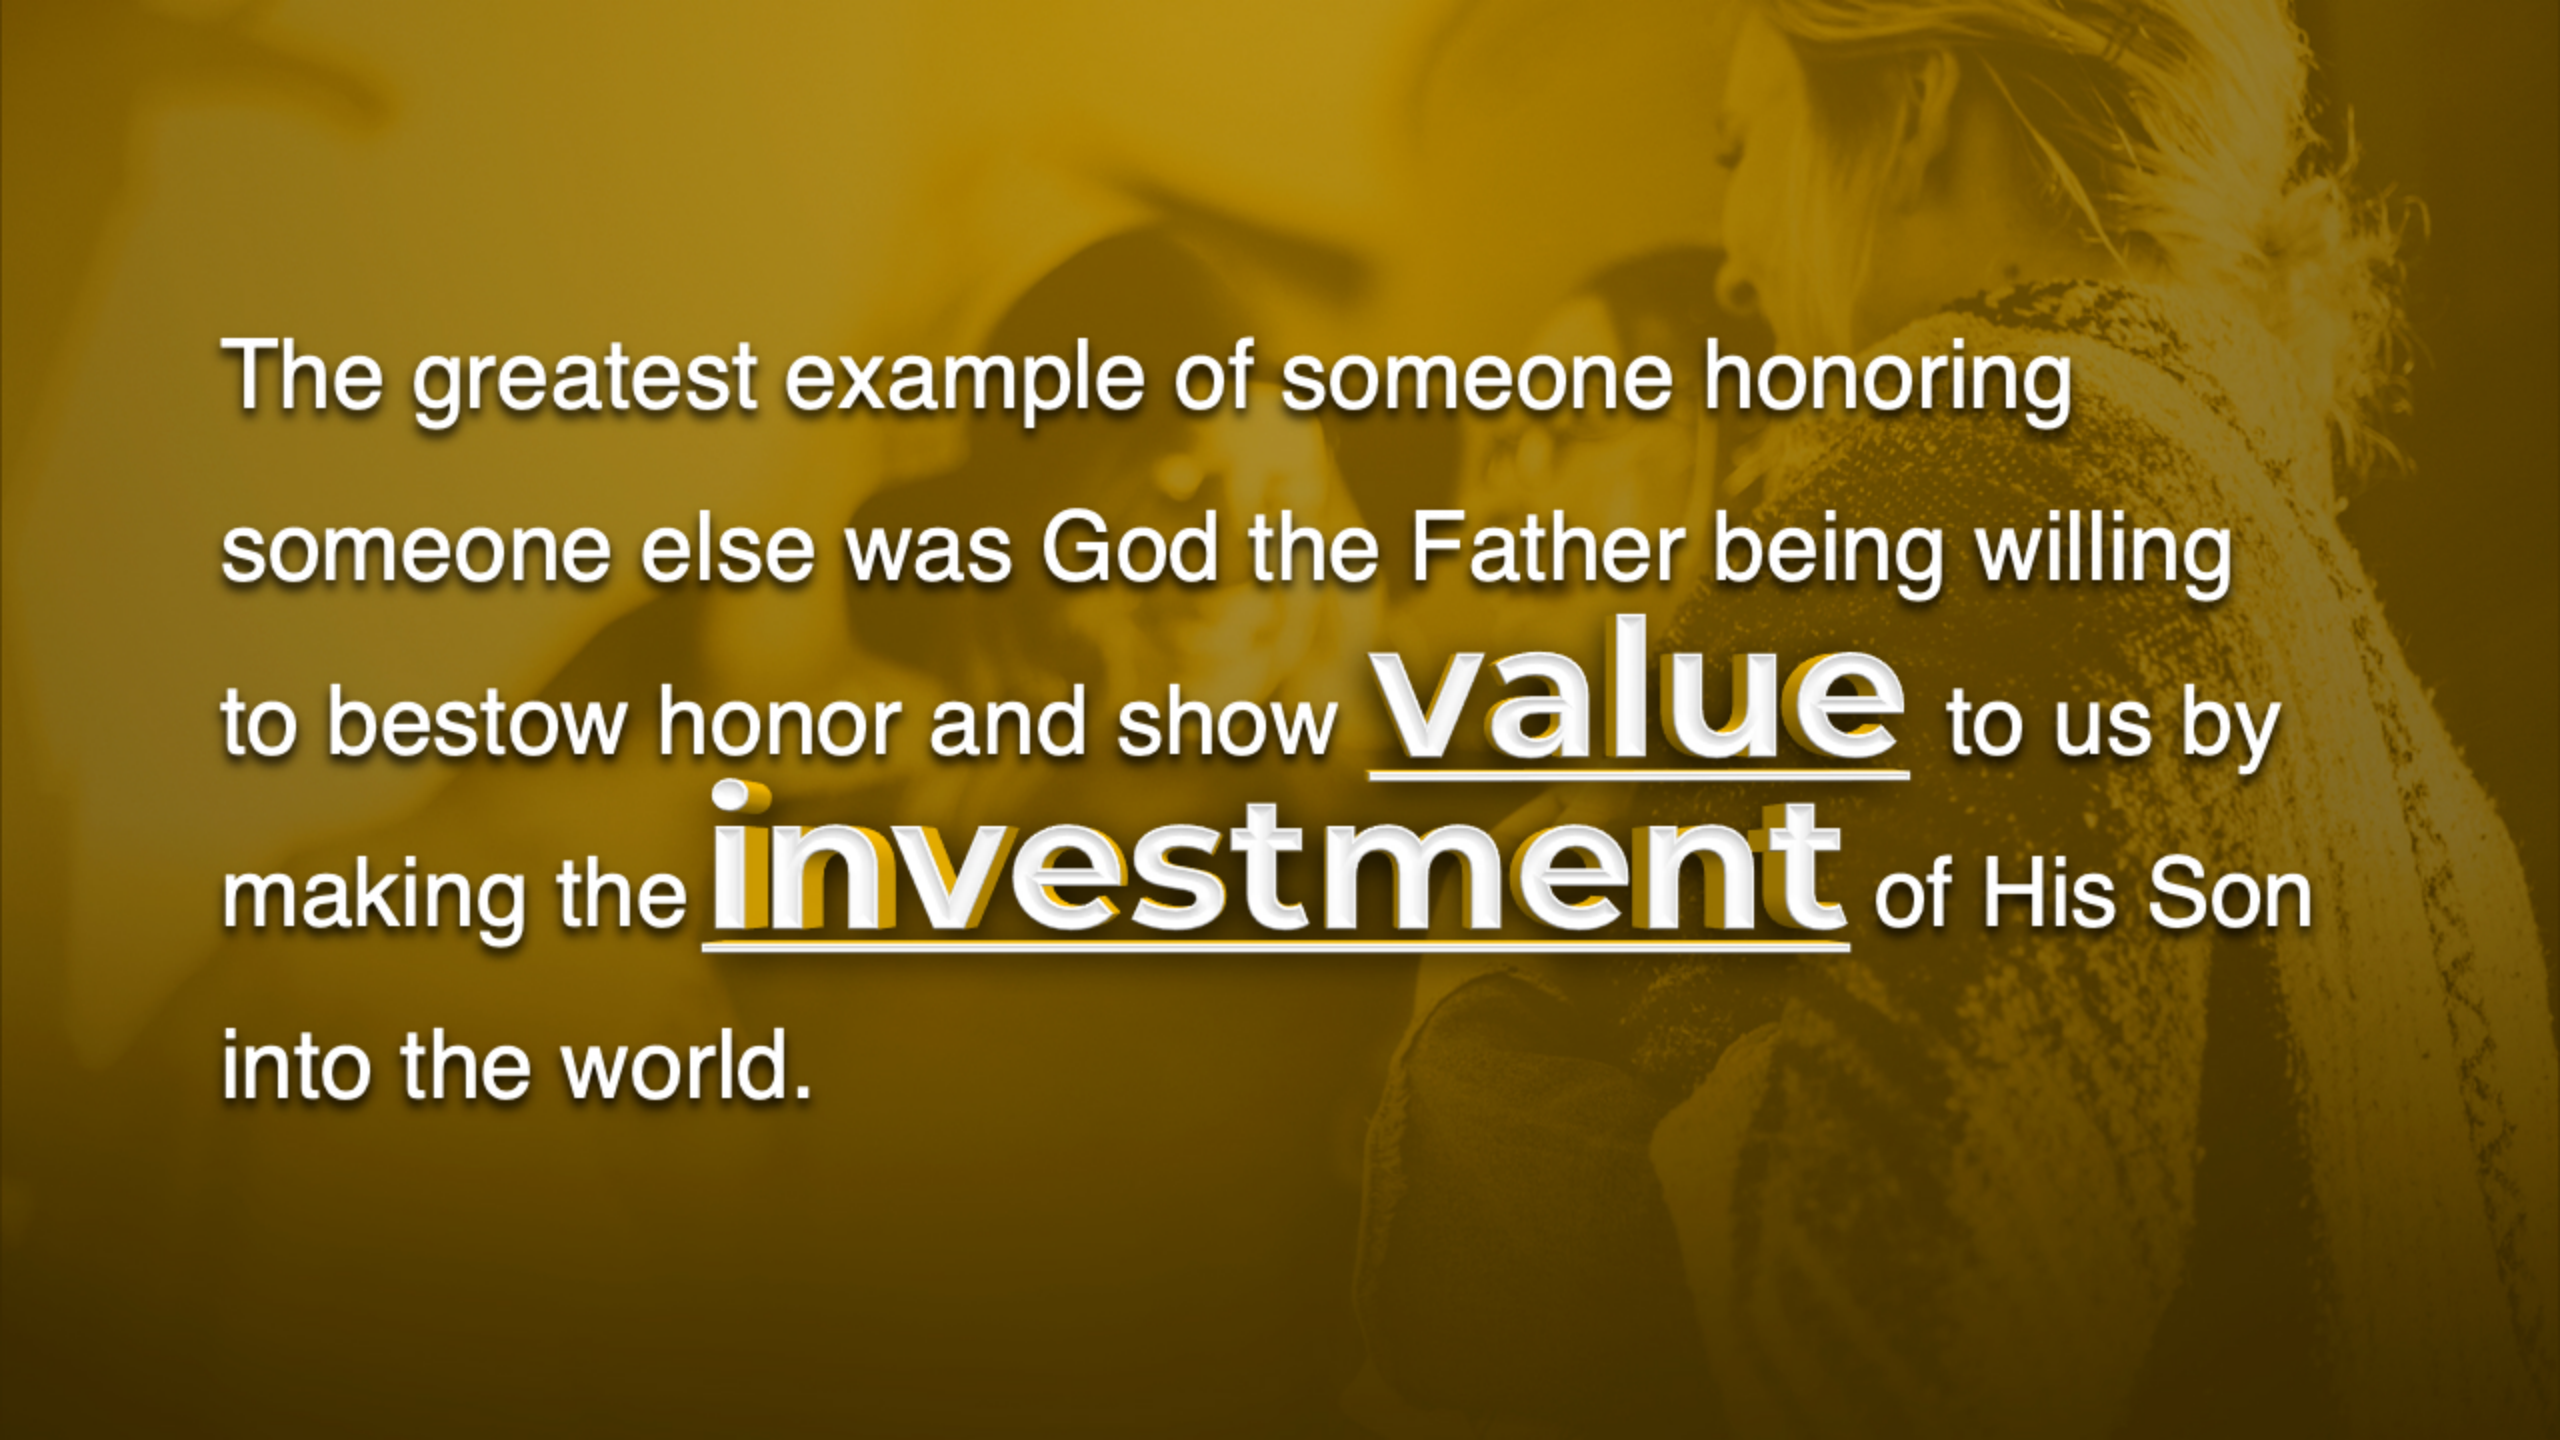

A group of people in a meeting, overlaid with a yellow filter. The image is slightly blurred, focusing on the text.

Realized through action

You do not belong to yourself, ²⁰ for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

1 CORINTHIANS 6:19B-20 NLT

The greatest example of someone honoring someone else was God the Father being willing to bestow honor and show value to us by making the investment of His Son into the world.

A group of people is shown in a warm, yellow-toned setting. In the foreground, a woman with blonde hair is wearing a textured, light-colored sweater. Behind her, several other people are visible, some looking towards the camera and others looking away. The overall atmosphere is intimate and emotional.

Hannah's Story

2

¹⁰ In her deep anguish Hannah prayed to the Lord, weeping bitterly. ¹¹ And she made a vow, saying, “Lord Almighty, if you will only look on your servant’s misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the Lord for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head.”

1 SAMUEL 1:10-17 NIV

¹² As she kept on praying to the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. ¹³ Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk ¹⁴ and said to her, “How long are you going to stay drunk? Put away your wine.”

1 SAMUEL 1:10-17 NIV

¹⁵ “Not so, my lord,” Hannah replied, “I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the Lord. ¹⁶ Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief.”

¹⁷ Eli answered, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him.”

1 SAMUEL 1:10-17 NIV

A group of people, including a woman in the foreground with her back to the camera, are shown in a warm, golden-yellow setting. The text "Honor opens up things in our lives that may have been barren for years." is overlaid on the image. The word "barren" is underlined and has a small yellow highlight on the letter 'b'.

Honor opens up things in our lives that may have been barren for years.

When we honor others it draws God's attention and attracts His favor into our lives.

A group of people in a meeting, overlaid with a yellow filter. The text is centered over the image.

The results of honoring one another.

3

Person/Position

Promise Attached

Others

Mutual Honor

1 CORINTHIANS 12:23

Parents

Long life

EPHESIANS 6:2-3

Those in authority

Honor in return

1 SAMUEL 1

The Lord Jesus

Miracles

MATTHEW 13:53-58

Spouse

Prayers unhindered

1 PETER 3:7

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white textured sweater, is hugging a man from behind. The man is wearing a white shirt and has his eyes closed. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting. The entire image has a warm, golden-yellow tint.

¹⁷ Honor everyone.

1 PETER 2:17A ESV

A group of people in a church setting, with a woman in the foreground wearing a white lace-trimmed garment. The background shows other people, some with their hands raised in prayer. The entire image has a yellowish-gold tint.

The act of honoring others is God's tool to transform you, not them.